

A Molière in Soweto

Performed by Soweto Visual Theatre

Contact:

Mobile: Oupa Mlaudzi: 0710532372

Mail:

Nicholas Ntsimbi Thamsanga:

A heady mix of comedy and drama, “A Moliere ... in Soweto” starts with a group of young people preparing to stage “The Forced Marriage”, a play by 17th century French author Moliere. But as the show opens, a member of the cast is grounded by her parents. And so begins a play within the play. Using people, puppets and a lot of humor, the play gets

- Technical requirements:
- The show is more an indoor show, but it may be performed outdoors.
- An empty space : minimum 5 meter depth by 8 meters long.
- It can be performed with a minimum of lights, but we have also a light plan with 19 light projectors. (see our technical responsible).
- 90 minutes is needed to set up the play and 45 minutes to set out. The show is going for 50 minutes about.
- 1 room to change clothes.
- 2 liters of water.
- Price:
- If possible, the show is sold 1500 rand minimum, plus the fare of transportation and accommodation.
- A special price is made for school.

